

The Prayer Life Of . . .

THE BELIEVERS

ACTS 4:23-31

1. Is there any significance to all the believers saying the same words, out loud, and together?
2. How did the Believers know what to say?
3. Why address the prayer to the Lord (God the Father) and not Jesus?
4. Why tell the Lord about something He knows He had done (i.e. Vs 24)?
5. Why use a quotation of David and not their own words in their prayer?
6. They seem to ask a question, did they get an answer (i.e. Vs 25)?
7. Would speaking the word of God “with great boldness” be going against governmental authority?
8. Is there significance in asking for things in the name of Jesus?
9. Do we feel like people and nations today are taking a stand against God? If so, how are they doing that?
10. What should we pray for today in order to overcome those opposing God?
